

Saint Jerome School
Summer Reading 2020

Dear St. Jerome Eighth Grade Student and family,

This quote begins our Summer Reading Program.

Reading may not be the first activity that you think of for this summer, but it is an excellent opportunity to exercise the mind and spirit. It can be an ideal way to relax, explore new ideas and keep your mind alert and ready for September. Reading is an ideal activity to involve family and friends. It can help visualize a different world and foster a greater appreciation for reading, especially when it involves choice and interest.

This year, the Summer Reading List has choices but not a “specific” writing assignment. The only written assignment is to keep simple written chapter notes on paper or index cards. These notes will summarize each chapter’s character(s), action(s) and or setting, etc.

On our first day of class, each student will complete a form listing the 3 books they read. During the week, we will discuss and share our “stories” of the various books that were read. The following week, each student will answer 4 or 5 questions about the books they read, using their notes. All students entering the 8th grade are required to read 3 books from the list below.

Choose 1 book from the list below:

- No Summit Out of Sight (Jordan Romero/Linda LeBlanc)
- The Boys in the Boat: The True Story of an American Team’s Epic Journey to Win the Gold at the 1936 Olympics (Daniel James Brown)

If the books above are not available for you to borrow or purchase, you may replace it with one from the list of classic books listed below.

- A Wrinkle in Time (Madeleine L’Engle)
- Hound of the Baskervilles (Sir Arthur Conan Doyle)
- The Little Prince (Antoine de Saint-Exupéry)

Choose 2 additional books from the list above or below:

- A Single Shard (Linda Sue Parks)
- Alex Rider: Storm Breaker (Anthony Horowitz)
- And Then There Were None (Agatha Christie)
- Esperanza Rising (Pam Muñoz Ryan)

- Fever 1793 (Laurie Halse Anderson)
- I Am Malala (Malala Yousafzai)
- Mother Teresa: DK Biography (Maya Gold)
- My Brother Sam is Dead (James Lincoln & Christopher Collier)
- The Book Thief (Markus Zusak)
- The Giver (Lois Lowry)
- The View from Saturday (E. L. Konigsburg)

Giving a variety of books to choose from will help make the reading experience more enjoyable. Summaries of books can be found online on many websites. The one I use is www.goodreads.com. Many of these books are available at branches of the Monmouth County Library. Placing online holds is now available and some libraries are currently offering door-side pickup at their locations. Others are available as ebooks or online. While we do not recommend any one site, some examples of free classic online books are available at:

- Library of Congress / mainly classics: <http://read.gov/books/>
- Open Library / short term borrows but many classics: <http://openlibrary.org/>
- Project Gutenberg / mainly classics: http://www.gutenberg.org/wiki/Main_Page
- Reading Sanctuary / A Wrinkle in Time:

There are research studies that indicate that students who participate in summer reading programs demonstrate higher achievements, increased reading skills, motivation, confidence and enjoyment. We hope you enjoy the choice of books and will value summer reading time with less written work and more reading enjoyment!

Best Always,
Mrs. Kerns
